Social and Personal

Mrs. William H. MacLeod, formerly of Virginia and Washington, and now making her home in New York City, spent a week with relatives and friends in Richmond, and was much entertained during her stay. Several dinner parties and other informal af-fairs were given in her honor. Mrs. MacLeod left yesterday for Washing-ton, where she will be the honor guest at several functions, before returning to her home in New York on Satur-

Valentine Party. Mrs. R. C. Traylor's Circle of Monu-mental Methodist Church will give a valentine party to-morrow evening at the home of Mrs. C. C. Davis, 2125 Park Avenue. A delightful program has been arranged, and everybody will be welcomed. be welcomed

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Bunce an-nounce the marriage of their daugh-ter, Miss Marguerite Marie Bunce, to William Henry Essig. Rev. J. J. Bow-ler performed the ceremony.

clety. Says the Sun:

Miss Elizabeth Starr, took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Herbert M. Brune, 518 Park Avenue. The members include Mrs. Bladen Lowndes, Mrs. Harry C. Black, Mrs. T. Edward Hambleton, Mrs. Frank G. Turner, Miss Elizabeth Randall, Miss Emma Warner, Miss Elizabeth Randall, Miss Emma Warner, Miss Elizabeth Lemmon, Miss Rosalind Bruce, Miss Adaline Piper, Miss Emily Randall, Miss Elise Lowndes, Miss Laura Clark, Miss Miss Miss Laura Clark, Miss Miss Wirginia Ambier. At the Art Club.

Instead of the lecture on stained Miss Weekly meeting of the Equal Miss Weekly meeting of the Equal

Instead of the lecture on stained glass, which was to have been given at the Art Club on Tuesday afternoon by Mr. Bunce, Miss Adele Clark gave an informal and very delightful talk on the carnivals in New Orleans. She showed pictures of the floats in the parades, of Rex Comus and Trotens, and gave more charming little bits of the stories of Mardi Gras in New Orleans. Quite a number of people were present, and tea was served at the close of Miss Clark's talk.

Founders' Day at Sheltering Arms.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'3?

HOFHEIMER'S Half Yearly SHOE SALE is now in progress. It's the big shoe event that happens but twice in

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

201 East Broad Street. Special displays of new fall styles in Women's Apparel.

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY-Women's and

Misses' Outer Apparel.

The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for Incubators.

N. Klein & Son. Inc. 620 East Broad.

WOMEN'S HOUSE

in solid colored ginghams and percales, with or without caps, without caps, trimmed in pipings of contrasting shades, 34 to in chambrays and ginghams, solid colors and checks, square and high necks; can be used for nurses or housewear; 34 to 46.

Basement.

Meetings To-Day.

The meeting of the Woman's Association of St. Paul's Church, will be held. Bishop O'Connell presiding.

The president of the board of manaday at 12 o'clock. A brief service will be held. Bishop O'Connell presiding.

The president of the board of many. sociation of St. Paul's Church, will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the Parish House. The association is co-operating with the Instructive Visiting Nurses' Association of this city in bringing to Richmond Miss Ella Phillips Crandall, of New York, the executive secretary of the National Organization of Public Health Nursing.

port of the chief nurse, Miss Nannte Minor. The public is most cordially invited to attend these meetings, and to-night the gallery will be reserved for colored people.

Lenten Music Club in Baltimore Society.

Says the Sun:

"The first meeting for this season of the Lenten Music Club, arranged by Miss Elizabeth Starr, took place yes-

The weekly meeting of the Equal Suffrage League will be held in head-quarters, 800 East Broad Street, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. B. B. Valentine will be chairman of the afternoon, and Christopher B. Garnett will address league members on "The Initiative and Referendum."

Invitations Insued.
Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Conway, of Haymont, Caroline County, for the marriage of their daughter, Kate Lee, to James Calvin Butzner, of Stafford County, on Wednesday, February 19, in Bethesda Baptist Church, Caroline County, at

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
The Ella V. Wood W. C. T. U. met
Tuesday at the home of 4ts prescident.
Mrs. Lee Todd, 1317 West Main Street. Made in Richmond

A sympathetic memorial service of the beloved Frances E. Willard was conducted by Mrs. Ella V. Wood, carrying cut the National W. C. T. U. program. it was encircled many times by a chain of red, white and blue, consisting of nearly 300 pledges, signed by men, wo-men and children. Eight new members were enrolled, and collections for the Frances E. Willard memorial fund was taken, and the treasurer ordered to forward same to the State treasurer, to help build the temperance monu-ment to the life of the founder of the white ribbon organization, the Woman's Rehearsal of 'Mikado."

A general rehearsal for the young people taking part in the production of the opera, "The Mikado." is scheduled for 8 o'clock to-night in the Stieff plano store on West Broad Street. The chorus girls will be drilled at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the same auditorium. The chorus men will have their next innings Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Both Professor Moses Stein, musical director, and Alvin M. Smith, the stage manager, are delighted with the progress being

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. John Henry Ingram, of 820 West
Grace Street, will leave on Sunday to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Carrington in Greenville,

Misses Lucy and Alice Pendleton, of Wytheville, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Pinder, at 219 South Third

J. G. Tinsley is spending a week in Atlanta with relatives.

Mrs. R. L. Gordon, of Louisa, is spending a few days with friends on South Third Street.

James Lishman, Jr., of Barrow-in-Furness, England, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Boyce D. Booker, at 3 East Franklin Street.

W. W. Lefew, who has been spending the winter months in North Carolina for his health, has returned to his home on Floyd Avenue.

Bishop D. J. O'Connell returned to Richmond yesterday, after a short stay at Rockcastle.

Mrs. Fred Palen, of Newport News, is the guest of Mrs. George Mayo, at the Hanover.

Miss Pelecca Gordon is in Baltimore, visiting her sister, Mrs. Edmund Mayo, at the Winona.

Mrs. H. G. Bryan is a guest at the Grafton, in Washington.

Haskins—Andrews.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Altavista, Va., February 12—
Thomas Hendrick Haskins, cachier of the First National Bank of Altavista, and Miss Eugine Beverly Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. An-drews, of 601 Madison Street, Lynchdrews, of 601 Madison Street, Dynch-burg, were united in marriage at 6 o'clock this evening at the hone of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Claudine Hutter, and the best man C. Hasking, of Lynchburg. The Try ceremony was performed by the Rev. James B. Dunn, rector of St. Paul's Church, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskins left immediately after the ceremony for a week's trip to Washington and Baltimore.

VETERANS GOING TO GETTYSBURG

DRESSES Members of A. P. Hill Camp to Be Guests of Philadelphia Post.

WEAR THEIR GRAY

Splendid Work Is Being Done by Daughters of Confederacy.

Times-Dispatch Bureau. 5 Bollingbrook Street, Telephone 1455, Petersburg, Va., February 12. A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Vet-

A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans will attend the great reunion of the Blue and Gray at Gettysburg as the guests of a Philadelphia post of the Grand Army of the Republic. A letter recently received from Colonel John L. Grim, of Philadelphia, president of the Atlantic Dredging Company, and well known in Petersburg. pany, and well known in Petersburg. urges the camp to bring as many mem-bers as possible and their families with them. Colonel Grim tells the Confederates not to be disturbed over ing the blue

Work of Confederate Daughters Phillips Crandall, of New York, the executive secretary of the National Organization of Public Health Nursing, of which Miss Lillian Wold is the president. Miss Crandall will speak before the Woman's Association in the afternoon, and this evening at $15 or older the John Marshall High School. Miss Crandall and Dr. Douglas Freeman will be the speakers at the annual public meeting of the Instructive Visiting Nurses' Association. George Bryan will preside at this meeting, and the report will be read from the president of the Nurses' Association. Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, and also the report of the chief nurse, Miss Nannie Minor. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Minor. The public is most cordially of the National Organization of the Chief nurse, Miss Nannie Minor. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Minor. The public is most cordially of the National Organization of the National Organization of the National Organization of the National Organization of the Chief nurse, Miss Nannie Minor. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Miss Crandall will speak ture reading by Rev. J. J. Wicker, of Leigh Street Baptist Church; address by John P. Branch, and benediction by Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., of the Sector of Miss Crandal Will speak Beptist Church; address by John P. Branch, and benediction by Rev. J. D. D., of the Sector of St. James Episton of Miss Crandal Relief Confederate Women. They give generous aid to the Home for Needy Confederate Women and frequently send boxes of continuous of various kinds to the Solviers' Home. They contribute liberally also to the Virginia Relief Fund. Will mark their work consists. Not only are their efforts distributed to will be s so quietly and unostentatiously that it splendid work in marking historical spots, in gathering and preserving Confederate history and in aiding in the education of Confederate children where needed.

Afternoon Marriage.
This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, in St. Andrew Street, Park Place, Miss Christine Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wachsmann, was married to Garland Russell Taylor, a prominent young business man of Norfolk and Ocean View. The Rev. George E. Booker, D. D., performed the ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet but very pretty home event, only relatives being present. After their briefs by Mrs. Mrs. Their briefs briefs are Mrs. The research of the control of the ent. After their bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside at Lenox, Ocean

The Rev. William H. Pettus, a Petersburg boy, who for some time past has been rector of the Episcopal Church at Saltville, has resigned as such, to accept a call to a church in one of the suburbs of Boston. He will in the meantime enter Harvard University to take the degree of Ph. D Mr. Pettus bade his friends in Peters-

Safe for Woman's Use

Nothing is more annoying to a refined woman than offensive perspiration or body odors. Those who have used Tyree's Antiseptic Powder know it to be the one remedy which never disappoints. For general uses-dependable in all cases-it should be in every household. Unequaled as a douche. Recommended by physicians everywhere, as it contains no poisons. One 25c box makes two gallons standard solution. All druggists of write for booklet and free sample. J. b. Tyree, Chemist, Washington, D. C.

805 E. Main Street

SMITH & WEBSTER,

612 East Main Street.

DETROIT GAS RANGES. OLD HICKORY PROTECTION SOLD ONLY BY

The new Wash Goods are the prettiest we have ever shown.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

Men's $1.50 Flannelette Pajamas, Sale Price,

$1.19

Men's $1.25 Flannelette Pajamas, sale price, 98c.

burg farewell yesterday, and left last night for Boston. Visit of Grand Officers.

Great Sachem G. W. Whitney and reat Junior Sagamore J. Ben Moore, of the Virginia Reservation of Red Men, last night paid an official visit to Powhatan Tribe, in this city, and vere received with the honors due their high position. A large gatherent, including many from Matoaca and ress and work of the order in the antly. It was announced at the meet cations for membership in Powhatan tribe. The tribes in Betersburg and The tribes in Betersburg and vicinity are all in growing and thriv-

Bible Class Officers. The Baraca Bible Class, of Wesley M. E. Church, at the annual meeting last night, elected the following offi cers: Teacher, W. R. Wood; assistant teacher, R. L. Alley; president, C. W. Harrington; vice-presidents, C. H. Harrington; vice-presidents, C. H. Steere and R. M. Baxter; secretary, J. D. Dixon; assistant secretary, Finley Brister; treasurer, C. S. Warriner; librarian, F. T. Keys; reporter, R. E. Butler. A collation was served after the meeting.

Horse and Buggy Stolen.

A horse and buggy belonging to James M. Saunders were stolen this morning on Sycamore Street. The team had been left tied to a telegraph pole in front of the office of the Virginia Life Insurance Comment. ginia Life Insurance Company. A man was seen driving the team out Halifax Street. The horse and buggy have not been recovered.

Property Attached. The property of M. A. Castwell, man-ager of the Norfolk Tailoring Com-pany, was attached to-day for debt. Mr. Castwell, with his wife, disappeared from the city night before last. The report is that he has left the State, going West. The matter has caused much comment.

Personal and General.

Announcement is made of the death in her home, in Douglaston, L. I., New York, on Monday evening, of Mrs. Olga Hasbrouk Jones, wife of T. Catesby Jones, formerly of Petersburg. Joel T. Brown, State treasurer of the Order of Eagles, went to Richmond on Commerce Street. He is survived by his wife and two young children. Stanley Burt, of Surry County, has announced himself a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates. He will be opposed by D. A. Harrison, of Prince George.

C. Moore.

James J. Gilliam, aged about fifty disappear.—Advertisement.

The body of a newly born white female infant was found this afternoon near the south end of West Street.

Bowles—Hanckel. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., February 12.— One of the most charming social events of the midwinter season was the wed-ding of Miss Ida Louise Macon Hanckel, ding of Miss Ida Louise Macon Hanckel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louise Trap-mann Hanckel, to Harry Thronton Bowles, which took place at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Christ Episcopal Church. A reception at the Blue Ridge Club followed Immediately, and was attended not only by society folk from the city, university and the county, but by a number of out-of-town riends who came on from the North for the marriage.

Christ Church was attractively dec-

Christ Church was attractively decorated, the predominating color scheme being green and white.

The wedding party entered the church through the main door as Miss Fannie Meade played the Lohengrin wedding march. The ushers were Frederick H. Brooke, of Washington, D. C.; Charles H. Welles, Jr., of Scranton, Pa.; Janies M. McGee, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Ord. Preston, of Washington, D. C.; Brewer Corcoran, of Springfield, Mass., and J. Stuart and William C. Hanckel, brothers of the bride. The two little flower girls were Suzanne Hanckel and Virgilla King, who imediately preceded the bride, es-Suzanne Hanckel and Virgilia King, who imediately preceded the bride, escorted by her father. They were met at the altar steps by the groom and his brother, John Elliott Bowles, of New York, who acted as best man. The officiating clergyman was Rev. H. B. Lee, D. D., who performed the ceremony. During the betrothal "The Evening Star," from Lohengrin, was softly played. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bowles left the church as the Mendelssohn wedding march was being rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowles left on a late north bound train for a brief wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home at the groom's farm on Hancock's Mountain, east of the city. The bride is the third daughter of ex-Mayor L. T. Hanckel, president of the Albemarle National Bank, and one of the most prominent residents of Charlottesville.

Mr. Bowles has made many friends since be generate Wisteria.

Mr. Bowles has made many friends since he came to Virginia to make his home. He is a member of one of his home. He is a member of one of the oldest and most prominent of the families of Springfield, Mass. His fa-ther, Dr. S. W. Bowles, was one of the leading physicians of Western New England and a man of unusual prominence in his home community. All but one of the out-of-town ushers were fellow-members of Skull and Bones, at Yale, and their gift to the bride and groom was a handsome Prescription experience is as essential as correct compounding. Try.

Tragele's

the bride and groom was a handsome hall clock.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ed Gilmore, of Sewickley, Pa.: Stephen Wallace Bowles, of New York, eldest brother of the groom; Miss Elisabeth B. Bowles, sister of the groom; Colonel E. C. Thompson, of New Haven; Russell S. Foote, of New York; Mrs. Ord. Preston, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Brewer Corcoran, of Springfield, Mass.

the bride and groom was a handsom

GENERAL IS RUSSIA'S MOST POWERFUL MAN

Has Entire Charge of Police, and
Is Responsible Only

To Czar

Is Responsible Only

Is Respon

their own hands.

he enjoys and at whose personal instance the general accepted the appointment. The Emperor takes the ground that the duties of the Minister of the Interior are so yest and which have just been entrusted to him. In fac, his appointment is an admirable one, since it takes the virtual control of the police out of the hands of questionable subordinates at the obtained an unwarranted command generalship immediately afterwards, thereof, owing to the lack of time of the Minister of the Interior to give obscurity. Department of the Interior, who had obtained an unwarranted command the necessary supervision.

General Dchunkowski's Governor-General of Moscow is taken by Major-General Count Michael Mour avieff, who has hitherto been the Governor of Pultowa, General Count Mouravieff is a nephew of those two statesmen of the same name who died n so extraordinary a manner as to

To Renew Complexion Without Cosmetics

(From The Dermatologist.) knew the impression her artificiality really makes upon ohers, she would quickly seek means of gaining a natural complexion. Let her acquire the mercolized wax habit, discarding the Order of Eagles, went to to-day to attend the funeral of H. E. Hirschberg, late State secretary, as the representative of Petersburg Aerie.

Chester Guy, a colored youth sent to the Central State Hospital from the Central State Hospital from like cold cream and wash it off mornings. And the results are so remarkable. Gradually the lifeless cuttle able. Gradually the lifeless cuttle off, in almost invisible flaky paragraphs. make-ups entirely, and she will soon have the kind of complexion that wo-men envy and men admire. It's so easy to get an ounce of mercolized M. E. Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. C. Moore, have thus far resulted in twenty or more conversions. The services are still being held every night. velously effective, the wonder is that every woman whose skin is withered, discolored, rough, chapped, freckled or night.

This afternoon, at so clock, at the home of the brother-in-law of the bride, on West Washington Street, Miss Pattie Florence Merritt was married to Edgar Walter Sessoms, of Hertford County, N. C., by the Rev. L. C. Moore.

Moore, Work at the discolored, rough, chapped, freckied or pimpled, has not already adopted it.

Let wrinkled women quit pastes and massage creams which mar the skin still more and try this more sensible treatment: Dissolve 1 oz. powdered saxolite in 1-2 pint witch hazel; use as a face bath. Every line will quickly

Clearance Sale Prices on Furniture AT

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc. 1418-1420 E. Main St.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS and CARRIAGES.

Kothert & Fourth and Broad.

7-inch Nickel Casserole, Guernsey lining. $1.50

The E. B. Taylor Co.

Same Quality Lvery Day. PURITY ICE CREAM. Monroe 1861.

Sample Shoes, Half Price ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad of Moscow to that of Deputy Minister of the Interior, has only consented to accept that office on the condition that he should have the entire control of torian, who was selected by Catherine the police and of the gendarmerie of the Great to direct the education of the empire. This renders him the most powerful man in Russia, far more powerful, indeed, than the new Minister of the Interior himself, whose later of the Interior himself, whose later and Minister of Public Instruction. ister of the Interior himself, whose ator and Minister of Public Instruction. immediate predecessors made a point To Nicholas Mouravien Catherine the of keeping the control of the police in Great confided the direction of the to-for his political offences. He was a kinsman of Mouravieff, and there has always been a question as to how far the latter facilitated his revolutionary British Steamer Reaches Port cousin's escape. At any rate, his sovereign believed him to be guilty For he deprived him of his governor

No less than ten Mouravieffs figure in the annals of their family as hav ing been sent to Siberia in chains, for political crimes, while one of them was political crimes, while one of them was hanged as a conspirator by Nicholas I. in 1825, his offence having consisted in heading the movement that called upon the new.Czar to fulfil the pledges made by his brother to grant the people a constitution.

ple a constitution.

Finally, there is that Count Michael Mouravieff, who was dictator of Poland a little over a century ago, and who acquirel so unenviable a celebrity, both in Poland and abroad, by the ter-rible severity with which he suppressed the insurrection. He, too, succumb-ed to poison, that is to say, to a dose of arsenic, supposed to have been administered by a Nihilist,

That Prince Buelow still retains a note and the Baltime ery remarkable amount of influence are standing by her. with the Kaiser and with the governman at Berlin, is shown in a striking manner by recent appointments. Prince Lichnowsky, who last fall was appointed to the post of ambassador in London, had been one of his principal secretaries, and so wholly devoted to him that he had retired from the ed to him that he had retired from the signed the chancellorship of the en

Another of Buelow's private secretaries, and most trusted lieutenants, a mber, indeed, of his household, Gottlieb von Jagow, has lately been appointed Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs at Berlin, and now the Emperor has appointed Baron Martin von Rucker Jenisch, a first cousin of Prince Buelow, to the post of German Ambassador at Rome, where the Buelows have made their principal home at the Villa Malta, which belongs to them, ever since the prince gave up the chancellorship. In view of the in-timacy between the baron and the prince, one can only see in the ap-pointment of the former a desire on the part of the Emperor to please Bue-years ago with the right to add his mother's name of denisch to his own, and is the son of the late by the son of whose sister was the mother of Princ Buclow. Both the Jenisch and the Rucker families have figured for hun-dreds of years in the annals of Hamburg as among the untitled patriciate of that Free City, possessing a sort of hereditary right to the dignity of and other allments. Senator of Hamburg. In fact, the late Dr. Rucker was at one time Minister Plenipotentiary of Hamburg, to the court of St. James.

His son, Baron von Rucker-Jenisch the newly appointed German Ambassador at Rome, was as Martin von Rucker, attached to the German Legation at Washington, in 1887 and 1881 in fact, Washington was his first diplomatic post. He is about fifty-three years of age, and marries five years ago his cousin, Countess Thyra Grote, who is about twenty years his junior. He is a particular favorite of the Y. peror, and has frequently been called upon to accompany the latter in his travels abroad, as a representative the Department of Foreign Affairs at Berlin, and like von Jagow, Prince Buelow, and the present Chancellor of Save These Labels and Get the empire, von Bethman-Hollweg, is an "Alter Herr," that is to say, a veteran of the famous student corps of Borussia, at Bonn, to which the Em-peror also still belongs in that capa-

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood

Invitations Issued.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., February 12.—
Invitations have been issued by Mr and Mrs. C. B. Conway, of "Haymont." Caroline County, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kate Lee Con-way, to James Calvin Butzner, of Staf-

Caroline County, on Wednesday, February 19, at noon. Carper—Harmer.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winchester, Va., February 12.—The second marriage solemnized in the Southern Methodist Church at Carper's Valley, Frederick County, since it was ford County. The ceremony will take place at Bethesda Baptist Church in valley, Freesrick County, since it was erected forty years ago, was that of Miss Anna Elizabeth Harmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harmer, to Claude Carper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Carper, this afternoon. Shaw—Miles.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hendgrson, N. C., February 12.—A beautiful marriage was celebrated in Warrenton, N. C., yesterday, when E.

Gold Watches

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS. Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Streets.

Is Responsible Only to Czar.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

GENERAL DCHUNKOWSKI, who has just been transferred from the post of Governor-General and powerful Boyards of the Province and powerful Boyards of the Province and powerful Boyards of the Province and will make Henderson their home.

Showalter—Heatwole.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., February 12.—
Earle Showalter, son of Frank Showalter, and Miss Mary C. Heatwole, daughter of S. D. Heatwole, were married last night by Rev. L. J. Heatwole, George -- Lewis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Heathsville, Va., February 12.—Miss Ore,
Blanche Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Fairfax Lewis, of near White Stone, and Gordon D. George, of lower Northumberland, were married this evening at White Stone parsonage, Rev. Charles A. Hall officlating.

in Badly Crippled Condition.

generalship immediately afterwards, and relegated him to private life and obscurity.

Still another Mouravieff, in command of a Russian squadron of twelve menof-war, appeared in the Bay of Tokio immediately after the departure of Commodore Perry some sixty years ago, and at the point of his guns, compelled the reluctant Japanese to grant to the Czar the same treaty rights as those which had just been accorded to the United States.

Condition.

Newport News, Va., February 12.—Leaking, short of coal, and with her after wheel house carried away and the steering gear badly damaged, the British steamer Meridian, which is en route from Shields to Nite Bay. Cuba, put into port here to-day in distress, bringing a tale of one of the roughest voyages ever experienced by her officients. The ship was thirty days making the trip usually made in from twelve to eighteen, and she had barely enough coal in her bunkers to reach port.

port.

Captain Stevenson reports encountering high winds and mountainous seas for days. A big sea broke over the stern, crushing in the wheelhouso the stern, crushing in the wheel The Vessel Is Beached.

Wilmington, N. C., February 12.—The American steamer Lassell, 1,225 tons, Captain Lawrence, Brunswick, Ga., to New York, put into Southport to-day with one of her holds full of water, having sprung a leak during yesterday's gale between Cape Romain and Frying Pan. The steamer was beached, and after being pumped out will repair and proceed. The revenue cutter Seminole and the Baltimore tug The Barnet are standing by her.

INDIGESTION

Causes Dizziness, Nervousness, Biliousness, Sick Headaches and Sallow Skin

MI-O-NA STOMACH TABLETS

BANISH ALL MISERY You know that most of the ailments named above come from an upset stomach; of course you do. When food reaches the stomach it ow.

Martin von Rucker-Jenisch is very matter to the blood.

stomach poisonous gases, which irri-tate the great pneumogastric nerve that leads directly from the stomach to the brain.

That irritation causes heartburn, dizziness, nightsweats, nervousness MI-O-NA is guaranteed to end all stomach misery or money back. A large box is 50 cents at druggists everywhere. Free trial treatment and booklet from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

Tragle Drug Co. guarantee MI-ONA.—Advertisement.

"John Dough" His Best Product in Richmond is

Daisy Bread

Daisy Bread at All Grocers

AMERICAN BREAD AND BAKING CO.

